of diversity. The celebration of Pink Shirt Day on February 27 was just one of several opportunities for students to explore kindness and respect for others. The rainbow crosswalks at some of our secondary schools are powerful symbols of inclusion. Diversity is now simply a part of the fabric of who we are.

It was moved by Bill Brassington and seconded by Christine Cunningham:

THAT the Board of Education receive and approve the Board Chair Report, as presented.

Carried unanimously.

Superintendent`s Report

Pink Shirt Day

Gina Niccoli-Moen, Superintendent of Schools, reported that February 27 is Pink Shirt Day. The strength of student voices can be heard not only across the Lower Mainland, but across the country as well. It was inspiring to experience the lessons of hope and compassion taught by students. This week many Burnaby elementary students were taking their show on the road.

Lisa Hartman, Principal of Stoney Creek Community and Lyndhurst Elementary Schools introduced student Caitlin Craig who told trustees that students from Cameron, Lyndhurst and Stoney Creek would be handing out kindness messages and gift cards at Lougheed Mall on Pink Shirt Day. They would also be performing a surprise flash mob. The students who accompanied her performed their flash mob for trustees.

It was moved by Larry Hayes and seconded by Bill Brassington:
